5 REASONS CREDIT UNION LOANS ARE RIGHT FOR YOU

If having a strong relationship with your lender is important to you, then our Credit Union has a definite advantage over other financial institutions.

1. Personalized Service

Our loan officers take the time to get to know you and your financial goals to make certain the loan is right for you. If you like the friendly atmosphere of local mom-and-pop establishments, you'll love doing business with Credit Unions.

2. Character-Based Lending

Credit Unions have always sought to keep people economically independent by helping them learn to save and borrow money responsibly. When lending to members, our Credit Union considers the relationship we have built with that specific member and their character, rather than just the borrower's credit score.

3. Nonprofit Business Model.

As a Credit Union member, you are an owner of the Credit Union. Our nonprofit, cooperative business model places people ahead of profits. We strive to treat our owners as the number one priority.

4. Better Rates

Credit Unions historically have offered lower financing rates than traditional lenders because earnings get returned to members as higher dividends on savings and lower rates for borrowing. We consistently offer the best terms and rates in the area.

5. Speedier Closings

A second mortgage allows you to borrow against the equity (value) in your home. Typically, you can borrow from a line of credit or a fixed amount with an attractive rate to make improvements.

The Bottom Line:

Our "People Helping People" philosophy began with members pooling their savings to lend to one another. With the ability to offer better rates and faster closings, we are determined to provide loans that ensure our members' financial success and stability.
